- ❑ For smaller children there will be the chance to learn some French activity songs and games in an informal situation.
- ❑ Adults who would like an introduction to French in a relaxed environment will have the chance to learn some useful phrases for holidays.
- ❑ Adults or older children who already speak French can learn or brush up on their situational French before their holidays or, for the more proficient, discuss current affairs.

- ❑ If you own a house in France and require some specialist language skills to deal with local artisans, please let us know when you register as this could also be arranged.

The day will be led by experienced teachers of French and native speakers and groups arranged according to levels of prior experience.
